

Understanding my insurance card

How do I use it?

The most important tool for using your health insurance is your insurance card. You need to have your card with you every time you get health care. Not all insurance cards look the same, but most include:

COVER MISSOURI